

LEAVING ON A JET PLANE series – Adil Writer writeup

Migration, transition, exodus, journey;
movement, flight, egress;
war, strife, politics, diaspora, homeland;
realities, stories, folklore, history, myths.
What would you take with you if you were to flee?
What would you expect to find in a locked suitcase?
...are we looking for solutions?
...peace?

Suitcases for this show are apt! Writer's CV reads like a travel retrospective. With a past-life in architecture (and being an artist by choice), at Mandala Pottery in Auroville, Adil strikes a fine balance between functional-ware and his sculptural work which has been showcased at solo and group exhibitions internationally.
